Coming To Install Naval Wireless On Oahu

TWO ELECTRICIANS ARE DUE BY SOLACE THIS MONTH FROM MAINE ISLAND TO ATTEND TO INSTALLING OF THE NAVAL WIRELESS PLANT—NEWS OF THEIR COMING RECEIVED BY MAIL TODAY BY THE NAVAL STATION.

The government intends to install the naval wireless apparatus on Oahu very soon. Word was received at the Naval Station this morning by the S. S. Alameda that L. W. Branch and W. K. Bellinger would arrive by the transport Solace this month and stop at Honolulu for the purpose of installing the naval wireless plant.

The site which had been selected for the wireless station on the island of Oahu was rejected some months ago by the Navy Department upon the grounds that the site was too exposed to attack, being located in the neighborhood of Kahuku Point. So far as is known no further negotiations for a wireless site have been undertaken by the government. The installation of the plant on Oahu is likely to be a part of the scheme of the government to establish wireless communication between San Francisco and the Philippine Islands.

NO AGREED SUBMISSION

COUNTY ACT CONTEST NOT TO BE TAKEN DIRECTLY TO THE SUPREME COURT, BUT MUST BE FOUGHT OUT IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FIRST—THIS MEANS A MUCH LONGER AND HARDER FIGHT.

"There will be no contest of the County Act by means of an original submission in the Supreme Court," said Mr. Cooper, myself and the attorney general are counsel for the defense," said McCants Stewart this morning, when asked if the first plan of bringing the matter up had been revived. This is in accordance with the statement in The Star several days ago, to the effect that a hitch had occurred in the setting of agreed facts, and it means that the attack will have to begin in the Circuit Court in the regular form, the suit to take the usual legal vicissitudes. The original plan was for Attorneys Highton and Cathcart, who are to attack the act, to agree upon a form of submitting the controversy originally to the Supreme Court, thereby saving the time required for a hearing in the lower court. The attorneys, however,

GERMANS KICKING ABOUT A PICTURE

DISLIKE THE IDEA OF GALLANT BAVARIAN SOLDIERS BEING DEPICTED AS A RUSSIAN MOB.

Some of the German residents are up in arms over what they consider as an unwarranted affront to the honor of their arms. In the window of a King street firm of stationers there has appeared a picture of some troops storming a house. The picture was labeled a scene during the course of a St. Petersburg riot. To the casual observer there was nothing unusual about the picture and it was accepted as the real thing but to the military student and the German generally he picture had a different significance. The men storming the house instead of being a part of a Russian mob, were Bavarian soldiers attacking a French house during the Franco-Prussian war. To see a valiant force of the German army so maligned was considered insulting by many Germans and they are now understood to have written to the German consul in relation to the matter.

PACIFIC HEIGHTS SALE OVER AGAIN

SUPREME COURT HOLDS THAT THE PRICE OF BALLENTYNE'S PURCHASE OF THE RAILWAY AT PUBLIC AUCTION WAS TOO SMALL—ROBINSON'S ORDER FOR A SALE IN PARCELS AFFIRMED THIS MORNING.

The Supreme Court has made a ruling sustaining the order of Judge Robinson refusing to confirm the sale of Pacific Heights Railway to C. G. Ballentyne, trustee, against the Pacific Heights Railway Company. The property includes all the rails, franchises, wires, poles and other property, including some land, of the Pacific Heights Railway Company. It was sold at auction under the $50,000 foreclosure suit, for $1,100. Judge Robinson held that the price was grossly inadequate and ordered another sale, directing that the property be offered in lots instead of all in one lot.

ARE GUESTS OF THE PARK BOARD

LEGISLATORS TAKE LUNCHEON AT KAPOLANI PARK TODAY AND ALSO VISIT THE PARK WONDERS.

Nearly all the members of the House and several Senators were the guests of the Park Commission today on an official visit to Kapiolani Park. They left the Capitol at 11:30 in a special car, Commissioners Thurston, Cleghorn and Cunha, Supt. Holloway and Representative Kuhio accompanying.

After a run to the end of the park the party returned to the new grass-roofed summer house where luncheon was served. This agreeable function over the Commissioners made brief but pointed speeches pointing out the vast amount of work that had been done with the last appropriation, small as it was, and showing the necessity for the expenditure of further sums to preserve the work accomplished and to further enhance the beauties of the place. Particular stress was put on the advantages which the establishment of an artesian well would give. It would furnish ample water for the park proper and would provide for the proper flushing of the streams while several artificial water falls of 12 to 15 feet in height could also be made.

Senators Dickey and Aehl, Speaker Knudsen, Reps. Aylett, Lilikalani, Dep. Kuhio and Chaplain Dusha spoke in the most complimentary terms of the work done by the Park Commissioners, their remarks being roundly applauded.

After a visit to the well kept nursery the party returned to the city well satisfied with the jaunt.

MURDER JURY ALREADY SECURED

JUDGE DE BOLT WILL NOT ORDER THEM LOCKED UP DAY AND NIGHT.

There were six well known attorneys on hand this morning for the Naome murder trial in Judge De Bolt's court. For the defense appear J. J. Dunne, Frank E. Thompson and a part of the time, W. A. Kinney, while the prosecution had Attorney General Andrews, J. W. Cathcart and A. M. Brown. A jury was almost secured during the morning session of court. Both sides nearly exhausted their challenges and the attorney general announced that the jury was satisfactory to the prosecution, though he had one right to challenge available. He did not formally accept the jury, however, Judge De Bolt refusing to allow him to use the challenge later if he waived it.

Andrews contended that he had a right to waive his challenge and declare the jury satisfactory and use the challenge later if a jurymen he didn't want came to the box. Dunne claimed that the rule of alternate challenges must continue unbroken and that if the prosecution waived its last challenge it was waived once for all. The court agreed with this view, holding that Andrews must challenge one of the men in the box, or finally waive his challenge. The defense still has two challenges left.

The twelve men left in the box at noon, when court adjourned before Andrews had decided whether he would offer any further challenges or not, are: J. P. Aiu, C. Ramsey, E. Dreier, E. L. Sharrett, C. Mortens, F. W. Macfarlane Jr., Milus Parkhurst, H. Mahaula, W. L. Austin, B. Guerrero, C. Frazer. Judge De Bolt stated during the hearing that he did not intend to have the jury locked up, as has been done in previous murder trials here. This was in answer to questions from F. W. Beardslee, who wanted to be excused if there was danger of being locked up. De Bolt said that under the new law the court could use its discretion and that he did not intend to lock up the jury unless reason appeared for so doing.

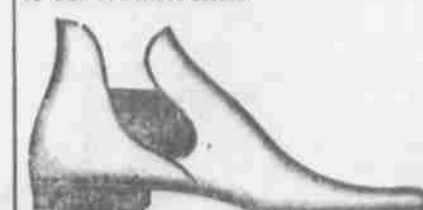

The excuses for cause this morning were largely on account of prejudice against the insanity defense. The jurors were all questioned at considerable length as to their view regarding insanity as a defense.
